

Friends Is All About Enjoying, Energizing and Encouraging

Many of us love Music, But for whatever reason we may not be music performers. Joining and supporting Friends of the La Porte County Symphony Orchestra is a wonderful way to express that love and help make it available for others.

About the La Porte County Symphony Orchestra

- The La Porte County Symphony Orchestra is a part of the vibrant arts landscape of Northwest Indiana and serves the 110,000 residents of La Porte County and regions beyond.
- Now Beginning it's 48th season, LCSO is a cornerstone of the performing arts for the area. What began as a small community orchestra has developed into a highly visible semi-professional orchestra of 60 musicians serving audiences across 7 counties
- The orchestra season includes three symphonic subscription concerts: two pops and one classical.
- The season kicks off with Hoosier Star, a trademarked gala fundraiser and vocal competition, now in its 15th year ...
- In addition to contracted summer concerts, LCSO presents their annual Holiday at the Pops event.
- The excellence of LCSO's educational outreach is significant for the area and The Children's Educational Concert has been recognized as one of the most successful such events in the nation by the American String Teacher's Association and the National School Orchestra Association.
